Mrs. R. E. Minton and Mrs. Mary L. Porter appeared before the City Commission in behalf of the hay-fever sufferers of the city. They stated that the contributing cause of hay-fever was the polen from the rag-weed, and that such weed was growing in great numbers within the city limits as well as out, and requested that a rag-weed cutting campaign be organized. The matter was considered and on recommendation action was deferred until an organization could be organized by the hay-fever sufferers, and others interested, looking to the promulgation of such a campaign, but promised some financial aid to such organization. (Later such organization was perfected at a meeting at which the Mayor and City Manager were present, and at said meeting a sum not to exceed $200.00 was promised. The campaign was put on and an actual sum of $193.10 was donation to the organization.).

M. D. Calhoun and wife appeared before the City Commission and demanded a sum of $1,000.00 be paid them for damages claimed by them to have accrued against their property by reason of the opening up and paving of Denman Avenue Extension from S. Angelina to S. First Street. It was agreed that members of the City Commission go to the property and look same over for the purpose of determining whether in their opinion said parties were entitled to any damages. They did look over the property and came to the conclusion that the amount asked was entirely too much, but stated they would be willing to pay a sum not to exceed $200.00. They, the said M.D. Calhoun and wife refused to accept said amount.
